

O God, Thou art the Father

1. O God, Thou art the Fa - ther of
 2. High in the heaven - ly Zi - on Thou 3. Thou to the meek and low - ly thy
 4. Christ is the world's Re - deem - er, the 5. Christ hath our host sur - round - ed with 6. All glo - ry to the Fa - ther, the all that have be - lieved; from whom all hosts of reign - est God a - dored; and in the com - ing se - crets dost un - fold; O God, Thou do - est lov - er of the pure, the Fount of heaven - ly clouds of mar - tyrs bright, who wave their palms in un - be - got - ten One; all ho - nor be to an - gels have life and power re - glo - ry Thou shalt be sov - ereign all things, all things both new and wis - dom, our trust and hope se - tri - umph, and fire us for the Je - sus, his sole be - got - ten ceived. O God, thou art the Ma - ker of Lord. Be - yond our ken Thou shin - est, the old. I walk se - cure and bless - ed in cure; the Arm - or of His sol - diers, the fight. Christ the red cross as - cend - ed, to Son; and to the Ho - ly Spi - rit— the all cre - at - ed things, the right - eous Judge of ev - er - last - ing Light; in - eff - ab - le in e - very clime or coast, in name of God the Lord of earth and sky; our Health while we are save a world un - done, and, suffer - ing for the per - fect Tri - ni - ty. Let all the worlds give judg - es, th'al - might - y King of kings. lov - ing, un - think - ab - le in might.

 Fa - ther, and Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. liv - ing, our Life when we shall die.
 sin - ful, our full re - demp - tion won. an - swer, "A - men, so let it be."